Nosenko on Oswald as a slousy shot. I did not have the transctipt when I wrote what I did. This is for insertion where I refer to Oswald's shooting. It was on 20/20, ABC-TV

Nosenko's exact words, quoting from the shot w/ transcript, are:

"In Minsk he was shooting rabbits with a shotgun.(sic) Would you believe it? He never shot a single rabbit. And here we see person (sic) shooting a rifle (sic) on a long distance...."

Posner then represented Robert Oswald as saying, "We have shot cottontails rabbits with .22s on the run, okay? We've shot squirrels in trees with .22s."

Robert said, "we", not "he" or "Lee." Robert's Commission testimony is that his brother never bagged any game.

Those KGB records on Oswald as so bad a shot, even with a shotgun, it is hard to imagine, also report that when Oswald went hunting in Minsk and never once shot any game, his companions gave him some of what they shot to take home.
